PEOPLE'S MASS STATE CONVENTION! At Madison, Wisconsin, Thursday, July 13.

All men opposed to the Repeal of the Missouri Com-promise, the Extension of Slavery, and the Rule of the Slave Power, are invited to meet at Madison, Thursday, July 13, to take such measures as may be Thursday, July 13, to take such measures as may be deemed necessary to prevent the future encroachments of the Slave Power, to repeal all Compromises in favor of Slavery, and to establish the principle of Freedom as the rule of the State and National Governments. The time has come for the union of all Free Men for the sake of Freedom. There is but one alternative. We must unite and be free, or divide and be continued by the positions have all the State and the continued by the positions have all the State and the state of the stat be enslaved, by the prestorian bands of the Slave-holders and their Nebraska allies.

Papers throughout the State, friendly to the object of the above call, please copy. June 20.

THE PROPLE'S PATENT OFFICE.

THIS well known establishment is still carried on under the personal superintendence of the undersigned, by whom all the necessary drawings, documents, and specifications, for Patents, Cavents, Designs, Foreign Patents, &c., are prepared with the utmost fidelity and despatch, on very moderate terms. Persons wishing for advice relative to Patents or Inventions may at all times consult the undersigned without charge, either personally at his office, or by letter. To those living at a distance, he would state, that all the needful steps necessary to secure a Patent, can be arranged by letter, just as well as if the party were present, and the expense of a journey be thus saved. When parties wish to be informed as to the probability of being enabled to obtain Patents, it will be necessary for them to forward by mail a rough outline sketch and description of the invention. No fee or charge is made for such examinations.

Private consultations held daily with Inventors, from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. All consultations and business strictly private and confidential.

Models from a distance may be sent by express or otherwise. THE PROPLE'S PATENT OFFICE.

PHILADELPHIA, March 1, 1853.

Dran Sir: For the past two years I have been severely afflicted with Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, and Piles, suffering constantly the pains and inconveniences attendant upon such complaints, without energy, being scarcely able to attend to any business. I used a great deal of medicine, without any apparent change until I used your "Hoofand's German Bitters." They have entirely cured me. I am now entirely free from pain and ache of any kind, and feel like a new man in every respect, and unhesitatingly recommend your Bitters to all invalids.

Yours, respectfully, JOHN R. CORY, Dr. C. M. Jackson. No. 12 Lagrange Place.
PHILADELPHIA, January 13, 1853.

DEAR SIR: I have used your "Hoofand's German Bitters" in my family for the last four years, for Liver Complaints and Dyspepsia, and am pleased to acknowledge that we have received the greatest benefit from its use. I have recommended it to a great many afflicted with similar diseases, with the same good result. I have no heaitation in saying that it is an invaluable medicine, and hope you will be able to introduce it into every family in the Usion.

Yours, truly, W. Huqmes, Dr. C. M. Jackson. 171 Wood st.

These Bitters are entirely vegetable, thereby possession great advantages over most of the preserve.

Dr. C. M. Jackson.

These Bitters are entirely vegetable, thereby possessing great advantages over most of the preparations recommended for similar diseases. They possess great power in the removal of diseases of the liver and lesser glands, exercising the most potent influence in weakness of the nerves and digestive organs. They are, withal, safe, certain, and pleasant.

A GREAT BLESSING TO THE AFFLICTED.

The number and formidable character of dis eases of the Liver have long challenged the attention of medical men. Some of these diseases, classed un-der the general term of Consumption, have been supposed incurable, and the unhappy patient allowed to die, without medical science to offer him a hope of recovery. Happily this can no longer be the case. A remedy has been found which will cure complaints, of whatever character, arising from derangement of the Liver. The Pills discovered by Dr. McLane, of Virginia, act directly on the Liver; and by correct ing its operation, and purifying it from disease, cuts off and extirpates the complaints which have their origin in the diseases of this organ. Remedies hitherto proposed for liver complaints have failed to operate upon the seat of the disease; but Dr. Mc-Lane's Pills make themselves felt upon the action of the Liver, and, by cleansing the fountain, dry up the mpure streams of disease, which thence derive their

WE have deposited with us, for sale, one of Avery's superior Sewing Machines, and are authorized to dispose of the same as a great bargain. This machine is considered one of the best now in use. We annex herewith the recommendation of some of the principal wholesale merchant tailors in New York city. NEW YORK, July 30, 1853.

We, the undersigned, do hereby certify that we have examined the "Avery Sewing Machine," and cheefully recommend it for its simplicity, durability, and especially for the peculiar stitch made by it. The stitch is original, and in appearance is like the most perfect and handsome "back-stitching." We have thoroughly tested the strength of the sewing, and are satisfied that the stitch of this machine makes a stronger and firmer seam thon can be made by hand. We take pleasure in recommending this Machine to our friends, and to tailors, seamstresses, and families generally, throughout the country:

The subscriber tenders his most cordial and grateful acknowledgments to his friends and patrons for their long-continued favors, and will be pleased to meet them in his new house.

I have a very well-assorted stock of Beots and Shoes, of French, New York, Eustern, and my own make, embracing exery style and variety, to which I invite the attention of members of Congress, and citizens generally.

To those persons who may visit Washington, and are in want of a boot that cannot be excelled, either in quality or workmanship, we would call their attention to the card of Henry Janney, to be found under the head of "Washington." A handsome and neatly-made boot is not at all times a source of pleasure to the wearer, but often one of extreme torture; this is caused by the bungling manner in which the boot is fitted to the foot. Mr. Janney has devoted much of his time in studying the construction of the human foot, in order to ascertain how a boot should be cut and fitted, that will be perfectly easy to all parts of the foot. In this he has succeeded, so that it matters not what may be the shape of, or the number of corns not what may be the shape of, or the number of corns on the foot, his boot is perfectly easy. Thus he has combined beauty with comfort.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS. The author of this book is the editor of the Alban

The author of this book is the editor of the Albany State Register, and among all our brother editors we know of none of such rare fancy and humor in depicting country life. Issae Walton would have been delighted to read such a book, and Christopher North would be happy in inhaling such good-humored sketches of country sports. We have rarely read anything more instinct of life and fun, than this book, or which is more appropriate to the season of summer and rural life.—N. Y. Express.

Reader, you have a rich treat before you, in the pages of this volume, which comes before you with interminable changes, magnificent groves, whose tall trees have withstood the storms of a thousand years; luxuriant gardens, fertile meadows, quiet lakes and running brooks, hills, valleys, and mountains—a multitude of attractions to inspire new, enlarged, fresh thoughts, in the mind that is wearied with the dull routine of our city life and dusty streets.—Philadelphia Courier.

It is so attractive, that he who opens it, will reluctantly relinquish it, till he has followed the writer over the hills, across the lakes, and among the forest streams—Rochester American.

It is a charming book for company on a summer tour, and will hold a prominent place among the luxuries of literature.—Troy Budget.

All the lovers of the country and of country life, of rural scenery and of nature in its wild grandeur, of the sports of the forest and the stream, should buy this book and read it.—Troy Times.

the sports of the forest and the stream, should buy this book and read it.—Troy Times.

A book that will be greeted by sportsmen, and eagerly read by the lovers of romantic adventure. Such readers will envy the author's happiness when they find him pulling up the simple, uneducated trout, from those secluded lakes; tipping over the deer at every shot; snuffing the fresh breezes of those old primeval mountains and hills; and listening to the music of the wild, wild woods.—Auburn Journal!

This is a charming volume. One almost fresh the bracing freshness of the lakes and forests as he turns over its graphic and sprightly pages. They are absolutely so bewitching, that to read them is not to be content without rusticating.—Philodelphia News.

His descriptions of the forest, the stream, the lake, the meadow, the birds, and the blossoms, are spontaneous gushes—warm feelings set to the simple music of Saxon words. The author has not only travelled among the scenes he paints so well, but has tarried with them until he has found out all their secrets.—Buffato Express.

It is a book to keep awake even in summer afternoons and evenings, conveying one most glibly across hills, lakes, and forest streams, and pointing out all that is worth seeing or feeling. There is much to warm up by wit, and to thrill by daring, in the book; and he who reads it and don't want to hie straight off in the country, may—read it through again, and see how mistaken a man he is.—Boston Bee.

DRAR SIR: A member of my family—a daughter, ten years of age—was afflicted with the sick headache, and we tried various remedies without success. When, however, you administered to her your "Headache Powders," we found them to be very beneficial, and, in fact, restored her to health.

I should, without hesitation, recommend them to those afflicted; and I beg to assure you, that I fully appreciate their value.

My Dear Sir: I avail myself of this opportunity to express to you my high appreciation of the efficiency and value of your Sick Headache Remedy. I have been afflicted, since my childhood, with very severe turns of sick headache, and have tried various remedies which have been prescribed, but found no considerable relief until I tried your remedy, which, I am happy to say, has almost entirely cured me. Several of my neighbors and friends have tried your medicine, and in every instance it has entirely relieved or greatly mollified the disease.

TO THE CONSUMERS OF DRY GOODS Who Seek their Supplies in our Market.

PORRIGN AND DOMESTIC DRY GOODS, of every style, all of the best qualities, and for which we shall have one price only.

We shall sell cheaper than we ever have done; and in having one price only (which, in our opinion, is the only fair and equitable way of doing business) we shall maintain our self-respect, which is above all price or success. Moreover, we expect to retain all the trade of those prompt customers who have made their purchases of us for some years past, and doubtless we shall have a large accession of new customers, who prefer to buy where one fair price only is asked.

We feel that our simple word is requisite only to satisfy our former customers that the one price system is the correct one, and to their advantage; and we do not hesitate to assert our belief that all candid and intelligent persons will, after an impartial examination of prices, fabric, and styles, give a one price store the preference. Those who are not judges of goods cannot fail to be impressed at once with the manifold and vast advantages to the purchaser resulting from the adoption in good faith of the one price system; it necessarily insures low prices to the purchaser, for it becomes absolutely necessary to meet at the start all competition that can be offered in prices.

Edition, in the brief space of Four Months!

A success unprecedented in Theological Publications!

An impression has already been produced by this masterly treatise, the most protound, wide reaching, and permanent.

It is perfectly manifest to all competent observers, that we are upon the eve of a theological discussion, the most comprehensive, radical, and portentous, the world has ever seen. To this discussion this book leads the way, with a momentum irresitible. There is not a question in Theology which is not destined to come up for a new and thorough settlement in the light of this final development.

All those who have Theological doubts and difficulties should examine the solution this work affords.

Those who have no doubts, but who wish to study the history of opinions in the past, and to keep pace with the developments of opinion in the future, will grievously err if they neglect to make themselves familiar with this kook. It contains the seeds of the thinkings and debatings of the next hundred years.

The reception of this work by the Theological press of the country, has been significant. Equally declining to accept his conclusion, they do it on opposite and contradictory grounds. One half of the Theological press endorses the minor. The other half endorses the minor, and denies the major premise of the argument, and denies the major. And as they are probably both right in their positive element, and wrong in their negative, the work has received a Virture of the product of the most themselves and wrong in their negative, the work has received a Virture of the product of the most themselves and wrong in their negative, the work has received a Virture of the next hundred years.

"THE WEST HAS NO LITERATURE!" GENIUS OF THE WEST, CINCISNATI, OHIO.

COATES KINNEY, HOWARD DURHAM, Editors. THE THIRD VOLUME OF THE GENIUS OF THE WEST commences with the July number, 1854 This Periodical was established for the pur-pose of encouraging and introducing to the public

ORIGINAL WESTERN LITERATURE.

"The West has no literature," was remarked by a prominent speaker in a public assembly, not a long time since. The West has a literature—a literature of her own—fresh, bold, vigorous, and beautiful—not refined into stupidity, not degenerated into obseenity—but looming up like her own mountairs, fertile as her rich soil, attractive as her blooming prairies. It has been the object of the Genius to gather in the choicest productions of this literature, and to send them forth again, to encourage, to please, and to instruct. It is not surprising that the public have regarded this object with extraordinary favor—a favor which is evidenced by the remarkable success of the Genius of the West. It has elicited the attention and admiration of cultivated minds in all parts of the country. From South Carolina, from New England, from Oregon, from every quarter where it has become known, there come eager calls for the Genius, accompanied with words of such enthusiastic commend.

Sion, as may well excite in the editors, as well as contributors, feelings of pride and pleasure.

On the heels of this success, Mr. Dukilan, the projector of this enterprise, is enabled to announce, for the forthooming volume, ORIGINAL WESTERN LITERATURE.

NEW AND ATTRACTIVE FEATURES! NEW AND ATTRACTIVE FEATURES!

Foremost, he has had the good fortune to associate with him Prof. Coates Kinney, who has purchased an interest in the Genius, and will hereafter devoto his whole attention to its pages. Among the posts and prose writers of the West, Mr. Kinney is conspicuous in the foremost rank; and the enlistment of his pen in the editorial department cannot fail to excite a deeper and still wider interest in the minds of the reading public.

The typographical execution of the work has also been improved, and so arranged as to afford a much greater amount of reading matter, without any advance in price volume.

The proprietors being now established in a printing effice of their own, it will be their object to extend the circulation of the Genius of the West everywhere, and they earnestly solicit the assistance of all who derive pleasure from literature, and especially of those who desire to encourage the growth of literature in the West, which shall command the respect of the world.

erature in the West, which shall command the respect of the world.

The Genius of the West is published monthly, royal octave form, thirty-two pages, superior paper and typography, and handsome cover. Each number is splendidly illustrated.

Postmasters and others are respectfully requested to act as agents in procuring subscribers. Agents sending five subscribers will receive one copy one year, free.
